INCIDENT: Person Injured from a fall

DATE: March 30, 2006 TIME: 10:26 am

LOCATION: Cobb Parkway North at Canton Road, Marietta GA. 30060

At 10:26 am this morning, Marietta Police officers responded to a dispatch of a person injured on Cobb Parkway North at Canton Road. Upon officers' arrival, an adult male was located with serious injuries classified as life threatening by EMTs at the scene. During the course of his investigation, Officer T. Waldron learned that the male was walking south bound on the railroad tracks on Canton Road. A train approached traveling south as well. The male ran trying to get away from the train and ultimately leapt from railroad tracks, missed a grass area, and fell to Cobb Parkway North, approximately thirty feet. The male was life flighted to Atlanta Medical Center and his current condition is unknown. The male's name is being withheld pending notification of his family.
